Persevering, Striving, Seeking, Living.

Sibling of a Brother, 23, Adrian, recent college grad making his mark in the world ; daughter of a mother, 46, Betty, pouring out that never ceasing tough love that is never appreciated until...; daughter of a father, 54, Gary, providing tirelessly despite retiring.

Lover of God, Betty, Adrian, Gary, my niece Zoey, Granny, the Bascoms/Gatlins/Hendersons, all things Louisiana, shrimp, catfish, Sprite, Snickers, strawberries, Edy's Butter Pecan Ice Cream (Weight Watchers Points Plus), reading, writing, relaxing, teaching, all A213 sweeties, my friends, my sorority sisters of Alpha Kappa Alpha Incorporated, books, life, and me.

Who feels blessed and extremely humbled for receiving the Borchardt Scholarship to participate in the Writing and Technology Study Abroad from July 23 to August 7, with about 28 other NC teachers; who feels comfortable about not doing what everyone else does; and who now feels good about saying no and not taking on more than I can handle.

Who needs the support of loved ones, the escape offered by a good book, and time to process.

Who gives my time, energy, best effort and then some in all that I do.

Who fears answering this question about my fears.

Who would like to see the unimaginable (never imagined I'd be heading to England), the Hendersons and the Bascoms have a family reunion within the next five years, and to see the fundamental rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness truly happen for all mankind.

Resident of Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee, North Carolina, and DC.
